- (viii) retained amounts and the purpose of the retention of the amounts;
- (e) the general meeting shall control the activities of the collective management organisation by appointing an independent external auditor to regularly audit its accounts;
- (f) all members participate in, and vote at, the general meeting;
- (g) every member has a right to a proxy to participate in, and vote at, the general meeting on the member's behalf:

Provided that the appointment shall be in writing and shall not result in a conflict of interest; and

- (h) subject to subparagraph (g)—
  - (i) a proxy shall be valid for the general meeting at which it is used;
  - (ii) the proxy shall enjoy the same rights in the general meeting as those to which the appointing member would be entitled; and
  - (iii) the proxy shall cast his or her vote in accordance with the instructions issued by the appointing member.

17. (1) A collective management organisation shall monitor the activities of, and performance of duties by, persons managing the business of the organisation.

Supervisory function.

- (2) The purpose of supervision shall be to ensure that—
  - (a) there is a fair and balanced representation of the different categories of members in the body exercising the supervisory function; and
  - (b) the body exercising the supervisory function reports on the exercise of its powers to the general meeting at least once in each year.

18. (1) A collective management organisation shall ensure that any person who manages its business does so in a prudent manner, using prudent administrative procedures, accounting procedures and internal control mechanisms.

Management, etc.

- (2) A collective management organisation shall establish procedures—
  - (a) for avoiding conflicts of interest; and
  - (b) where conflicts of interest cannot be avoided, to identify, manage, monitor and disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest in such a way as to prevent them from adversely affecting the collecting interests of rights holders represented by the organisation.
- (3) The procedures referred to in paragraph (2) shall include an annual statement by the person referred to in paragraph (1) to the general meeting, stating—

- (a) any interests in the collective management organisation;
- (b) any remuneration received in the preceding financial year from the collective management organisation including benefits in kind and other types of benefits;
- (c) any amount received in the preceding financial year as a rights holder from the collective management organisation; and
- (d) a declaration concerning any actual or potential conflict between—
  - (i) any personal interests and those of the collective management organisation; and
  - (ii) any obligations owed to the collective management organisation and any duty owed to any other person.

(4) A collective management organisation shall ensure that its training procedures for employees, agents and representatives include appropriate training on conduct that complies with its obligations under these Regulations.

19. (1) There shall be conducted, at least once in each year, a lifestyle audit of each member of staff of a collective management organisation.

Lifestyle audits.

(2) The lifestyle audit shall be conducted by an auditor appointed at the general meeting.

(3) The board of a collective management organisation shall ensure that members of its staff are not related to any member of the board.

20. (1) A collective management organisation shall ensure—

Collection and use of rights revenue.

- (a) that it is diligent in the collection and management of rights revenue;
- (b) that it keeps separate in its accounts—
  - (i) rights revenue and any income arising from the investment of rights revenue;
  - (ii) any own assets it may have and income arising from such assets, from management fees, subscription fees or from other activities; and
  - (iii) administration and distribution amounts;
- (c) that it does not use rights revenue or any income arising from the investment of rights revenue for purposes other than distribution to rights holders, except where it is allowed—
  - (i) to deduct or offset management fees in accordance with the Act or these regulations; or
  - (ii) to use rights revenue or income arising from the investment of rights revenue in accordance with the Act or these regulations; and

- (d) that where it invests rights revenue, or income arising from the investment of rights revenue, it does so—
  - (i) in the best interests of the rights holders whose rights it represents; and
  - (ii) in accordance with the general investment and risk management policy of the organisation.

(2) The board of a collective management organisation shall seek the approval of distribution rules from the general meeting of its members.

(3) Any income sought to be retained by the collective management organisation shall be with the approval of the members in a general meeting and be expended for the purpose members have resolved.

21. (1) A collective management organisation shall ensure that where a rights holder authorises it to manage the rights holder's rights, the organisation shall provide the right holder with information on—

Deductions.

- (a) management fees; and
- (b) any other deductions from the rights revenue and any income arising from the investment of the rights revenue before obtaining the right holder's consent to manage the right holder's rights.

(2) A collective management organisation shall ensure that deductions—

- (a) are reasonable in relation to the services provided by the collective management organisation to right holders; and

(3) A collective management organisation shall ensure that management fees do not exceed justified and documented costs incurred by the organisation.

(4) A collective management organisation shall ensure that where it provides social, cultural or educational services out of deductions from rights revenue or income arising from the investment of rights revenue, such services shall be provided fairly.

22. (1) A collective management organisation shall regularly, diligently and accurately distribute and pay amounts due to rights holders in accordance with the organisation's general policy on distribution.

Distributions of amounts to rights holders.

(2) A collective management organisation shall distribute and pay the amounts due to right holders promptly, but in any event not later than the beginning of the period which starts nine months from the end of the financial year in which the rights revenue was collected.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a collective management organisation may distribute or pay the amounts due to rights holders out of time if there are objective reasons for not distributing or paying the amounts including reasons relating to—

- (a) reporting by users;
- (b) identification of rights or right holders; or
- (c) matching of information on works and other matters with rights holders.

(4) A collective management organisation shall ensure that amounts due to right holders are kept separate in the accounts of the organisation where—

- (a) those amounts cannot be distributed within the specified time; and
- (b) paragraph (3) does not apply.

(5) A collective management organisation shall take all necessary measures to identify and locate rights holders for the purposes of distribution and payments of amounts due to the rights holders including—

- (a) making available, not later than three months after the beginning of the period specified in paragraph (2), information on works and other matters for which a right holder has not been identified or located to—
  - (i) the rights holders represented by the collective management organisation or entities which are its members and which represent rights holders; and
  - (ii) the collective management organisations with which it has concluded representation agreements;
- (b) verifying the relevant records relating to a rights holder for the purposes of distribution or payment of due amounts; and
- (c) where rights holders remain unidentified or not located, making the information referred to in subparagraph (b) available to the public not later than one year after the period referred to in subparagraph (a).

(6) The information referred to in paragraph (5) shall include, where available—

- (a) the title of the work or other matter;
- (b) the name of the rights holder;
- (c) the name of the publisher or producer of the work or other matter; and
- (d) any other relevant information which could assist in the identification of the rights holder.

(7) Amounts due to right holders shall be non-distributable for the purposes of these regulations where—

- (a) they cannot be distributed before the end of the period of three years from the end of the financial year in which the collection of the rights revenue occurred; and

- (b) the collective management organisation has taken all necessary measures to identify and locate the right holders.

(8) A collective management organisation shall provide its members with statements of the royalties paid within a given period.

23. (1) A collective management organisation shall not discriminate against any rights holder whose rights it manages under a representation agreement.

Rights managed under representation agreements.

(2) Despite the generality of paragraph (1), a collective management organisation shall not discriminate against a rights holder whose rights it manages under a representation agreement with respect to—

- (a) applicable tariffs;
- (b) management fees; and
- (c) the conditions for—
  - (i) the collection of rights revenues; and
  - (ii) the distribution of amounts due to right holders.

24. (1) A collective management organisation shall not make deductions, other deductions of management fees—

Deductions and payments in representation agreements.

- (a) from the rights revenue derived from the rights it manages on the basis of a representation agreement; or
- (b) from income arising from the investment of rights revenue, unless the other collective management organisation that is party to the representation agreement expressly consents to the deductions.

(2) A collective management organisation shall regularly, diligently and accurately distribute and pay amounts due to other collective management organisations.

(3) A collective management organisation shall distribute or pay put amounts due under paragraph (2) promptly but in any event no later than the beginning of the period which starts nine months from the end of the financial year in which the rights revenue was collected.

(4) Despite the generality of paragraph (3), a collective management organisation may not distribute or pay out amounts due under paragraph (2) if there are objective reasons for not distributing or paying including reasons relating to—

- (a) reporting by users;
  - (b) identification of rights or right holders; or
  - (c) matching of information on works and other subject matter with right holders.
- (5) The other collective management organisation referred to in paragraph (1) or, where it has a member which is an entity representing rights holders, that member shall ensure that it distributes and pays the amounts due to rights holders promptly but in any event not later than the beginning of the period which starts six months from the receipt of amounts, save where paragraph (4) applies with the necessary modifications.

25. (1) A collective management organisation—

Licensing.

- (a) and a user shall negotiate the licensing of rights in good faith; and
- (b) and a user shall negotiate in good faith the tariffs for exclusive rights and rights to remuneration in relation to—
  - (i) the economic value of the use of the rights in trade taking into account the nature and scope of the use of the work and any other relevant matter;
  - (ii) the economic value of the service provided by the collective management organisation; and
  - (iii) the value added by any service providers and individuals; and
- (c) notify the user in writing of the criteria used for the setting of the tariffs specified in subparagraph (b).

(2) A collective management organisation shall—

- (a) respond promptly to requests from users indicating, among other things, the information needed in order for the collective management organisation to offer a license;
- (b) upon receipt of all relevant information, promptly either—
  - (i) offer a license; or
  - (ii) deny the user a license and notify the user in writing of the reason for the refusal;
- (c) allow users to communicate with it by electronic means, including the purpose of reporting on the use of the license; and
- (d) after giving a user a license, treat that user in good faith.

(3) Where more than one collective management organisation operates in one sector, the collective management organisations shall enter into a recognition agreement for joint negotiations of licensing and the joint collection of royalties.

26. Three months before tariffs approved under section 46A of the Act are due to expire, the Board shall—

Public participation in the development of copyright tariffs.

- (a) notify the relevant collective management organisations to propose new tariffs for the next licensing period;
- (b) require the collective management organisations to compile a comprehensive list of users of their works by business association;

- (c) require the collective management organisations, within fourteen days after the expiry of the period specified in paragraph (a), to notify and share the proposals with users;
- (d) require the collective management organisations, within fourteen days after sharing the proposals with users, to hold a users' forum to discuss and negotiate the proposed tariffs for the purposes of approving the publication of the new tariffs in the Gazette;
- (e) require the collective management organisations, within seven days from the date of the meeting under paragraph (d), submit the discussed tariffs to the Board together with a copy of the resolution by the users agreeing to the new tariffs;
- (f) within seven days after receiving the approved tariffs under paragraph (e), invite, by notice in a newspaper with a nationwide circulation, the public, collective management organisations and any other interested party to a public forum to discuss the draft proposal and collect views on the proposal;
- (g) hold the public forum contemplated in paragraph (f) within fourteen days of the date of the notice specified in paragraph (f);
- (h) convene a group comprising of a member of the Board and a representative of the collective management organisations shall incorporate the views and comments from the public forum into the draft tariff proposal and submit it to the Board;
- (i) convene a validation workshop of the public, collective management organisations and any other interested party within seven days of the forum convened under paragraph (g) to approve the revised tariffs; and
- (j) submit the revised tariffs to the Cabinet Secretary within seven days of being approved under paragraph (i).

27. (1) A user and a collective management organisation shall enter into a written agreement on the information that the user shall provide to the collective management organisation where such information is necessary for—

- (a) the collection of rights revenues; and
- (b) the distribution and payment of amounts due to rights holders.

(2) The collective management organisation and user shall ensure that they take into account, as far as possible, voluntary industry standards on the format for the information referred to in paragraph (1).

28. (1) A collective management organisation shall make available by electronic means the information specified in paragraph (2) at least once in each year to the other collective management

Users' obligations.

Information provided to other collective management organisations on whose behalf it manages rights under a representation agreement for the period to which the information relates.

organisations.

(2) The information required to be made available under paragraph (1) shall include—

- (a) the rights revenue attributed for the rights managed under a representation agreement;
- (b) the amounts paid by the collective management organisation—
  - (i) for each category of rights managed under the representation agreement; and
  - (ii) for each type of use for the rights managed under the representation agreement;
- (c) rights revenue attributed which is outstanding for any period;
- (d) deductions made in respect of management fees;
- (e) deductions made for a purpose other than in respect of management fees;
- (f) any licenses granted or denied with regards to works and other matters covered by the representation agreement; and
- (g) resolutions adopted by the general meeting insofar as the resolutions are relevant to the management of the rights under the representation agreement.

29. (1) Subject to regulation 28, a collective management organisation shall make the information specified paragraphs (2) or (4), where applicable, available by electronic means and without undue delay, in response to a duly justified request, to—

Information provided to right holders, other collective management organisations and users.

- (a) a collective management organisation on whose behalf it manages rights under a representation agreement;
  - (b) a right holder; or
  - (c) a user
- (2) The information under paragraph (1) shall include—
- (a) the works or other subject matter the collective management organisation represents;
  - (b) the rights the collective management organisation manages directly or the collective management organisation manages under representation agreements; and
  - (c) the countries covered.
- (3) Paragraph (4) shall apply where, due to the scope of the activity of the collective management organisation, the work or other subject matter which it represents cannot be determined.
- (4) The information specified in this paragraph is—
- (a) the types of works of other subject matter the collective management organisation represents;

- (b) the rights the collective management organisation manages; and
- (c) the countries covered.

30. (1) A collective management organisation shall—

Disclosure of information to the public.

- (a) publish the information specified in paragraph (2); and
  - (b) publish and keep up to date on its public website the information specified in paragraph (2).
- (2) The information specified in this paragraph is—
- (a) the collective management organisation's memorandum and articles of association;
  - (b) the list of officials of the collective management organisation;
  - (c) the collective management organisation's policy on the distribution of amounts due to right holders;
  - (d) the collective management organisation's policy on management fees;
  - (e) the collective management organisation's policy on deductions, other than in respect of management fees, from—
    - (i) rights revenue;
    - (ii) income arising from the investment of rights revenue including deductions for the purposes of social, cultural and educational services; and
    - (iii) the complaint handling and dispute resolution procedures available or the collective management organisation; and
  - (f) the collective management organisation's annual reports and audited accounts.

31. (1) This regulation shall apply to the filing of annual reports and audited accounts under section 47 of the Act.

Form and contents of annual report.

(2) Every registered collective management organisation shall, within three months after the end of the financial year, submit to the Board, in Form CMO 05 as set out in the Schedule, an annual report for that year accompanied by a copy of the organisation's audited accounts in respect of that year.

- (3) The annual report referred to in paragraph (2) shall contain—
- (a) a comprehensive report of the organisation's activities during the year;
  - (b) a list of the organisation's members at the end of the financial year;

- (c) the total amount of royalties collected by the organisation;
- (d) the amount of royalties paid to each member by the organisation;
- (e) the amount of money spent by the organisation on administration and operations;
- (f) the name, postal and physical address of the auditors of the organisation;
- (g) the amount of money used for the social fund;
- (h) non-distributed royalties and reasons for the non-distribution;
- (i) the names, addresses and occupations of current officials of the organisation; and
- (j) any other relevant information as the Board may require.

32. (1) A collective management organisation shall make available to—

Procedure of alternative dispute resolution.

- (a) its members;
- (b) rights holders who are not its members but who have a legal relationship with it by law, assignment, license or other contractual arrangement;
- (c) collective management organisations on whose behalf it manages rights under representation agreement; and
- (d) users;
  - effective and timely procedures for dealing with complaints.
- (2) The matters covered by the procedures for dealing with complaints referred to in paragraph (1) shall relate in particular to—
  - (a) the authorisation to manage rights;
  - (b) the termination or withdrawal of rights;
  - (c) membership terms;
  - (d) the collection of amounts due to right holders;
  - (e) deductions and distributions;
  - (f) the service provided; and
  - (g) the conduct of members of staff during licensing.

(3) A collective management organisation shall—

- (a) respond in writing to complaints; and
- (b) give reasons where it rejects a complaint.

33. (1) A collective management organisation shall ensure that the disputes to which paragraph (2) applies can be submitted to an independent and impartial alternative dispute resolution procedure:

Alternative dispute resolution.

Provided that the parties shall consent to the alternative dispute resolution procedure.

(2) This paragraph shall apply to disputes between a collective management organisation and one of its members, a right holder, a user or another collective management organisation concerning compliance with these Regulations.

34. (1) The Board may give notice to—Notice for supply of information.

- (a) a collective management organisation;
- (b) a member
- (c) a right holder or a body representing the interests of right holders;
- (d) a user or body representing the interests of users, requiring the person to whom the notice is given to supply the information or document required in the notice at a time and a place and in a form and manner specified in the notice.

(2) The person to whom the notice is given shall supply to the Board the information or document which is specified or described in the notice.

(3) Nothing in this regulation gives the Board any power to require a person to supply any information or document which the person would be entitled to refuse to supply on the grounds of advocate-client privilege, on the grounds of confidentiality of communications, confidential business information or any information the disclosure of which is protected or otherwise restricted by any other law.

(4) Nothing in this regulation shall be construed as requiring a person to provide information if to do so might incriminate that person.

35. (1) Where the Board finds that a collective management organisation has failed to comply with its obligations under these Regulations, the Board may give a compliance notice to that person, body or organisation.

Notice of non-compliance.

(2) A compliance notice shall be in writing and shall—

- (a) state the collective management organisation has not complied with a provision of these Regulations;
- (b) specify the provision in question and state the acts or omissions which contravene that provision;
- (c) request the collective management organisation, where non-compliance with the provision is continuing—
  - (i) to end the non-compliance within such time as the notice may specify; and
  - (ii) provide evidence that the non-compliance has ended;
- (d) if the Board thinks fit, request the collective management organisation to provide a written undertaking that non-compliance with the provision shall not be repeated; and
- (e) caution the collective management organisation that if—
  - (i) the organisation does not comply with the compliance notice, or

- (ii) the organisation fails to comply with a written undertaking provided in respect of the compliance notice, further action may be taken in accordance with the Act or these Regulations.

(3) The Board may withdraw a compliance notice and in doing so shall give the collective management organisation notice of the withdrawal.

(4) Where a compliance notice has been given, no action to impose a penalty under these Regulations may be taken in relation to that failure unless the collective management organisation to whom it has been given has failed—

- (a) to comply with the compliance notice; or
 (b) to comply with a written undertaking provided in respect of a compliance notice.

36. (1) The Board may impose a financial penalty on a collective management organisation if the Board is satisfied upon hearing the collective management organisation that the collective management organisation has failed to comply with its obligations under these Regulations.

Penalty for non-compliance.

(2) Where the Board imposes a financial penalty on a collective management organisation under paragraph (1), the Board may also impose a financial penalty on a director, manager or similar officer of that collective management organisation.

(3) The amount of the financial penalty shall be such amount as the Board considers appropriate.

(4) In deciding what amount is appropriate the Board shall have regard to the nature of the failure of compliance.

- (5) A financial penalty may comprise of either—
 (a) a sum not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings; or
 (b) a sum not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings together with a sum not exceeding ten thousand shillings for each day that the person referred to in paragraph (2) continues to fail to comply with its obligations under these Regulations:

Provided that the aggregate sum payable by the director, manager or similar officer shall not exceed one hundred thousand shillings

- (6) A financial penalty shall be payable to the Board.

37. (1) As soon as practicable after imposing a financial penalty, the Board shall give notice of the financial penalty to the collective management organisation on whom it is imposed.

Demand for financial penalty.

- (2) The notice shall state—

- (a) that the Board has imposed a financial penalty;
- (b) the amount of the financial penalty;
- (c) the acts or omissions which the Board considers contravene these Regulations;
- (d) the provisions of these Regulation which the Board considers are contravened
- (e) any other facts which the Board considers justify the imposition of a financial penalty; and
- (f) the period, which shall be not less than 28 days from the date the notice is received by the person, within which the financial penalty is to be paid.

(3) The Board may rescind a penalty which has been imposed on a collective management organisation and give the collective management organisation written notice of the rescission.

38. If a collective management organisation on whom a financial penalty has been imposed is aggrieved by the imposition or the amount of the financial penalty, the organisation may appeal to the Copyright Tribunal.

Appeals.

39. Where a financial penalty, or any portion of it, has not been paid by the time which it required to be paid, the Board may recover from the collective management organisation on whom the penalty is imposed any of the penalty which has not been paid as a debt due to the Board.

Recovery of unpaid penalties.

40. Where an appeal or a court action is made against the decision of the Board to impose a financial penalty, the party filing the appeal is not under an obligation to pay the penalty pending the hearing and determination of the appeal and such non-payment shall not be deemed to be a continued violation of the penalty notice or the obligation giving rise to the penalty.

Penalty not to be paid during pendency of appeal.
